

LEARNING AND LOVING EDUCATION CENTER JANUARY 2018 NEWS

The beginning of a new year always merits some reflection. It is not so much a time of making new resolutions, but rather, space in which to ponder life and review personal growth. A new year is a good opportunity to look at what guides my thoughts and decisions each day, to look at the person I already am and who I want to become.

Let's once again consider our school theme this year: "A Bridge to a Meaningful Future." How have you been a bridge for others? How have you moved forward on your journey across the bridge to success? What do you still need to accomplish during this coming year? How will you remain focused and put forth effort in order to achieve your goals?

January is an excellent time to pause, reflect, analyze, and plan as we move forward into 2018.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

THANK YOU!

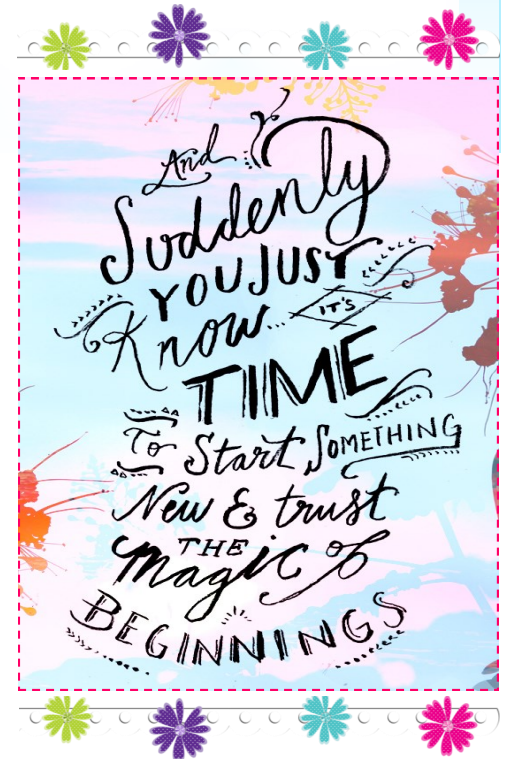

Thank you to all our donors and especially our Christmas Angels who adopted one of our families, the ones who donated toys for our toy give away, Santa Claus who visited our children and made their morning memorable.

We can't do without you.

God bless you always!
