Fall is my favorite season of the year. When I grew up in the Midwest, I loved the transition from the extreme heat of summer in anticipation of the cold of winter. The air was crisp; it was a time of harvest; it was a time of moving from one season to another.

Joyce Rupp writes in a prayer:

*God of fallen leaves
lying in colored patterns on the ground,
our lives have their own patterns.
As we see the patterns of our own growth,
may we learn from them.*

As you recall, our school theme is “Milestones.” Do you see the pattern of important events in your lives as you see the leaves upon the ground? What transitions may you be experiencing at this time in your lives?
